NEED HELP HEARING SUNDAY WORSHIP?

If you struggle to hear the various voices of our worship leaders, please speak with Jeff Zelensky. Jeff can give you sound amplification headphones, so you need not miss anything as we worship God together.

Rebecca's Revelation

“But strive first for the realm of God and God’s righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.” (Matthew 6:33)

“I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” (John 13:34-35)

Grace and peace to you in the name of Jesus Christ! CHURCH! Our June 12th Homecoming Sunday in honor of Central’s 175th anniversary is almost here! Although I still have a million details to attend to as I write this, I am so excited. In addition to all the “usual suspects” in our current congregation, former members and pastors, Regional Minister and President, Rev. Rick Spleth, General Superior of the Sisters of Providence, Sr. Denise Wilkinson, and General Minister and President of the Christian Church (DOC), Rev. Dr. Sharon Watkins will be with us. WE WANT OUR SANCTUARY TO BE PACKED ON THIS SPECIAL, ONCE-IN-A-LIFETIME DAY!

In the midst of all the work and energy and prayers for this day (and for this entire year-long celebration), a book I recently read prompted me to ask, “Why?” Why are we doing all these things? After 175 years, why is our particular faith community still here? In an age when many people are not part of church or institutional religion, why do we do all that we do?

For me, it comes down to 2 major things. First, I truly believe God loves each and every human being, God loves all of creation, unconditionally. God wants all to have abundant life and to have what is necessary to thrive and be all that God intends. I know God best in the life, ministry, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and being part of the church helps me nurture and grow in my relationship with God through worship, study, fellowship, and ministry with others who also strive to follow Christ.

Second, far too many people do not know Jesus – or the God Jesus reveals – as I do. If they did there would be far fewer hurting, lonely, and lost people. Those of us who know God’s love and grace for ourselves, those of us who have made the decision to follow Jesus Christ, are – in no uncertain terms – called to build God’s realm on earth. Even as we strive to find healing and wholeness for ourselves, we work with God’s Spirit in making the world a more kind, more just, more compassionate place for all. We are able to accomplish much more together as the faith community, we are able to contribute more building blocks for God’s Realm together, than if we tried to do it alone.

For 175 years I think Central Christian Church has existed for these two reasons, and this is absolutely worth celebrating. I also think that as we recall our history and all that CCC has accomplished in the world in Christ’s name thus far, it should inspire us to continue our mission and ministry with ever-greater enthusiasm and determination for the future.

Happy anniversary, Central Christian Church (DOC)! Rejoice, for God loves you!

Rev. Rebecca Zelensky

P.S. My Central Christian sisters and brothers, THANK YOU very much for the wonderful card and spa gift to mark the 20th anniversary of my ordination into Christian ministry! I am so proud to be your pastor and I am blessed to serve in Christ’s name with you.

Special Music for the Summer of 2016

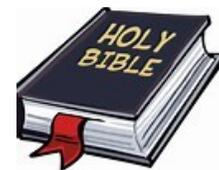

As usual, the choir will be on "vacation" during the summer and we invite volunteers to contribute special talents that will enhance the worship service during this time. You can sign-up at the Information Center to share your musical gifts from May 22 through September 4. If you require an accompanist, please contact Karen Sagraves with a copy of the music at least 2 weeks prior. If you have any questions, please contact Karen Sagraves or Kelly Meyer. The musical offering should be something of a worshipful nature as it will be a part of the worship service. We look forward to hearing from our talented congregation over the summer! The one exception will be the Homecoming Sunday on June 12 when we will not only have the wonderful CCC Choir but we will have past choir members joining us for this special Sunday. This promises to rattle some windows!

Save the dates!! The July 5th Sunday Musicale will be another musical treat. The regionally famous Little Italy Festival Singers will be entertaining us with traditional Italian songs. And, to top it off, the performance will be followed by a spaghetti supper! You're going to want to come home early from vacation for this one! More details on this group in the July Clarion.

BIG Read's Focus for June is Joshua

Ahhh...to finally finish the Torah, the first five books of the Hebrew Scriptures! My first semester in seminary, my Old Testament professor thought that every minister of a local congregation should know what was in each chapter from Genesis through Deuteronomy – that's 187 chapters. Although I aced that exam, I am very grateful for Bible dictionaries, concordances, and those concise titles at the beginning of chapters/sections in most bibles because other information in my brain has buried most of what I memorized for that test.

Anyway, the time has arrived, BIG Readers, to move on with the Israelites into the Promised Land. Joshua is an interesting as well as challenging book, especially for those who follow the ways of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. This book raises some important questions: Does God want some peoples to conquer others? Would the God of the prophets and psalmists and Jesus really command the death of innocent children, women, the elderly, animals, etc. simply because they were living on land the Israelites wanted? Is there a more essential lesson to be found in the pages of Joshua about God's loyalty and faithfulness in spite of the disturbing issues of war and violence?

Even if you have not been reading the scriptures lately, jump back in with Joshua. To catch you up: (at the end of Deuteronomy), Moses has died, the people have wandered for forty years in the wilderness, and (almost) everyone who sassed God after leaving Egypt has died. It is time for the next generation of Hebrews to follow God and settle into a permanent home. And don't forget to send out your thoughts, questions, and reflections on these readings via email!

Building God's Realm through Mission & Outreach

Sharing Acts of Kindness & Bookmarks (?) for CCC's Anniversary

Tuesday, June 28, is the actual anniversary date for Central Christian Church. As a way of spreading God's love and grace and celebrating the congregation's 175 years in Terre Haute, our Elders are encouraging all our members and friends to do something extra special to commemorate the day.

Prior to June 28, bookmarks with the anniversary logo will be available at church. On June 28 – and throughout that week – do some act of kindness for a person or persons in our larger community. For example, you may want to pass out water bottles at one of our parks, pay for the person behind you in line at Java Haute or Subway, put change in parking meters downtown, leave an encouraging note for a clerk or salesperson who waited on you that day, etc. Then, give the recipient of your act one of our bookmarks that will say "This act of kindness has been done for you in honor of Central Christian Church (DOC)'s 175th Anniversary!" Even those of us out of town at that time will be participating: our God Squad will be passing out blessings bags – and bookmarks - to the homeless in Lexington, KY that morning.

Mayor Duke Bennett has said that he will make a special Proclamation on June 28 to coincide with this outreach project, so let's get out there, Central, and spread some kindness!

Special Thanks from Your Koinonia Fellowship Team

We would like to thank everyone who attended our 175th Birthday celebration for our church and our own birthdays on May 14th. We also extend a special thanks to Traci Tucker and Sarah Wilson for making the delicious birthday cupcakes and the following ladies and young ladies who volunteered to decorate and host a table for our 175th birthday party:

Susan Edmondson	Mary Beth Ripple	Dinah Vasbinder
Andrea & Amanda McColl	Cathy Kurtz & Lorri Ugo	Sherrie Mansfield
Betsy Hine	Carol Sloan	Theresa & Violet Vaughn
	Shelly & Rachel Manning

It was a fun, relaxing evening and another great way to join in the celebration of this very special year in the life of our church. It's always a blessing to gather and share in conversation and great food. We have wonderful cooks here at Central and it's a special treat to get to sample all of the delicious dishes. The questions for conversation allowed everyone to get to know a little more about each other and it was nice to mix-it up with persons sitting at the table of the month of their birth.

Active Adult Activities

It was so nice to have fourteen persons join us for our May 13th dinner at Moggers. It was a perfect choice of a place to eat as we celebrate our 175th anniversary of Central Christian. We were seated in a back room right in front of one of the beautiful stained glass windows that came from our former church building at 207 N. 7th Street. A lot of other stained glass in the bar area of the restaurant and the front doors also came from our old church.

Due to all of the June church activities and VBS in July, the next activity for the group will be a cook-out at the Crist home at 5:30 p.m. on Saturday August 6th. Everyone is invited to join us for any of our dinners or activities. There will be a sign-up sheet closer to the August cook-out so the Crists will know how many to plan for. They'll provide the meat, lemonade, iced tea and soft drinks, and everyone can just bring a dish or dessert to help with the meal.

Update on Letter Campaign for Bread for the World

Dear Friend of Bread for the World,

I am pleased to report that on Primary Eve some 500 letters were placed in a basket on the altar in the chapel of the United Campus Ministries center. There they were blessed in a ceremony attended by two or more representatives from each of a dozen local churches. Bread member, Rev. Linda Peters officiated, and it was a true and memorable ecumenical occasion. The letters were delivered to the Indianapolis offices of Senator Donnelly and Senator Coats and the Terre Haute office of Representative Bucshon. The Terre Haute Tribune sent a photographer, so there may be a story in a recent Sunday paper.

If you intended to be involved, either as an individual or through your church, but didn't quite make it this year, there will be many other opportunities, either next year through the community Offering of Letters, or all year long via the messages you receive from Bread.org.

Our next Bread meeting will be June 13. For the time being, we will meet on the second Monday of the month, at 6 p.m.

Thanks for being a part of this effort to address hunger, in Terre Haute and in the world at large.

175th Anniversary Homecoming Service & Dinner

Sunday, June 12th

We are very excited about this special day in the life of our church as we celebrate our 175th anniversary and hope you signed up to attend. It is an honor that Rev. Dr. Sharon Watkins, General Minister and President of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), will be our guest preacher that day. Rev. Rick Spleth, Indiana Regional Minister and President, will also be in attendance.

We were excited to hear that three of our former ministers will also be with us that day. Dr. Rev. Richard Haynes will speak at the dinner, Rev Tom Russell will be doing one of his famous "Swag Bottom Creek" children's sermons, and Rev. Verity Jones will be singing with our choir. It was also wonderful to receive RSVP's from several of our former members who will be joining us in worship and those who were choir members will also be singing with our choir that day.

Following the worship service we will transform the sanctuary into a dining area for our celebration dinner. Rather than have a carry-in meal, the Koinonia Fellowship Ministry team and your Christian Women's Fellowship group have decided on the following menu:

Fried Chicken (from Baesler's)	Mashed Potatoes & Gravy	Green Beans
Corn	Tossed Salad	Dinner Rolls
Birthday Cake & Cupcakes	Lemonade, iced tea & coffee

Instead of asking persons to bring dishes for a carry-in, this set menu will make it easier for people not to have to make a dish to bring to church; it will also move the serving line along with access from both sides of the tables. A kind member has already talked to Bob Baesler who has agreed to sell the chicken to us at half price and a donation to cover the remaining cost has already been made. Special thanks to Traci Tucker and Sarah Wilson for their donation of one of their delicious cakes and cupcakes.

We have determined the amount of food required, based on the RSVP's and the sign-up sheet at church, and have posted tags of donated items needed for the meal on the display board in the sanctuary. Since no one will have to bring a covered dish, if you are able, we are asking persons to take a tag to purchase an item or make a cash donation. Koinonia Fellowship and CWF will be preparing the food that morning. Please see Mary Beth Ripple or Sharon Crist if you have any questions or would rather make a cash donation and they'll do the shopping. Other than the dinner rolls, all other items will need to be brought to church by June 9th.

Thanks for your support in making this special day in the life of our church one that we'll treasure and remember for years.

JUNE 18TH IS RAPIDLY APPROACHING IT'S ALMOST TIME FOR THE COW DROP

We thank all of you for your support in selling tickets, wearing your Holy Cow shirts to advertise, posting flyers and putting up yard signs for our 3rdnd Annual Holy Cow Drop. It's not too late so keep selling those tickets! We hope you'll join us for this fun event that has the potential to be a huge fundraiser for our church. It is truly a family festival. The day offers free parking, admittance and popcorn. While waiting for Betsy the Cow to choose the winner, there will be free games, bounce houses, and other activities for the children. Rondrell Moore of WTHI TV has already agreed to be one of our celebrity judges. Children twelve and under will receive a free raffle ticket for a drawing at 2 p.m. for a Walmart gift certificate for a bicycle. Grilled hamburgers and hot dogs, chips, cow pie (no bake oatmeal cookies), snow cones, soft drinks and bottled water will be available for purchase. Invite your family, friends and neighbors to come and bring their lawn chairs, blankets or sit in the bleachers and enjoy a relaxing afternoon.

A grid of up to 3,000 (2 ft x 2ft) squares will be created on our property between the church and the cemetery. Each $10.00 ticket purchased will be randomly assigned a square. Betsy will be allowed to wander until 2:00 p.m. and the ticket holder of whichever square Betsy decides to "fertilize" will win $10,000. If by 2:00 PM Betsy does not choose a square, then the winner will be selected by a random drawing of all tickets sold. The winner does not need to be present to win. Additionally, every half-hour beginning at noon there will be a drawing for $50.00. Winning a $50.00 drawing does not affect the chances of winning the $10,000.00.

We are still in need of lots of volunteers to help at the event, make cow pie (no bake oatmeal) cookies, and to keep selling those tickets. Please sign up at church if you can help or contact Lorri Ugo, Holy Cow Chair, at 812-249-3034 if you have any questions or need more tickets to sell.

Please keep wearing your Holy Cow shirts when you're out in the public at ballgames, events, dinner, etc. to publicize our event. If you'll be attending the Strawberry Fest at First Congregational church, wear your Holy Cow shirts and have tickets with you in case anyone's interested. The tickets also make great gifts!!!

HOLY COW PIE COOKIE RECIPE

3 cups sugar

½ cup Hershey's cocoa

½ cup milk

Dash of salt

1 stick of butter/margarine

1 teaspoon vanilla

1-2 T peanut butter,
(smooth or crunchy)

3 cups quick oats

Combine sugar, cocoa, milk, butter/margarine and salt in a heavy 3-quart saucepan (if you butter the top sides of pan when it is cold, this usually helps prevent boiling over). Cook over medium-high heat, STIRRING CONSTANTLY, until mixture comes to a FULL BOIL.

Cook 1 minute at full rolling boil, continuing to STIR CONSTANTLY.

Remove pan from heat. Add vanilla, peanut butter and then the oats stirring well as you add each item. Drop by teaspoon onto waxed paper. Let cool until firm.

HINT: Stirring constantly is the key to success in this recipe.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION NEWS

Due to our extremely busy summer schedules at Central Christian we are giving our very dedicated children and youth Sunday School teachers a much deserved break! Sunday School will meet on June 5th and June 19th. We will not return to class again until August 7th.

Christian Education will still be ongoing in July through VBS. Our 1840s "Bethany Village Live" will be held each evening July 17-21. We will meet from 6:30 - 8:15 pm. Many people have volunteered to help with this important ministry for our children, but we still need help. We have various jobs available, but our greatest needs right now are an adult to lead games outside and people to build scenery. If you are able to help please let us know. Most importantly, we need children! Please invite your family, friends and neighbors. A VBS celebration will be held during worship on Sunday, July 24.

The Christian Education Committee will meet on Wednesday, June 1st at 6:00 pm. The main topic will be VBS. Everyone involved or interested in VBS is welcome to join us.
